EMPIRE STORE.
DRY GOODS DEPOT & HEAD QUARTERS FOR BARGAINS!!
THIS Store at No. 4 East Water street, directly opposite to Shepard & Bonnell's. The subscriber would call the attention of Country Merchants and others to his stock of STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, which are all new and well adapted to the Western Trade.—purchased by the package of the Commission Houses in New York and Boston, and which he pledges himself to sell at wholesale as cheap for cash as can be purchased of the jobbers in New York City.
The subscriber will receive in a few days a large addition to his present stock, which will make it complete—and would further say to "ALL" that visit this place for the purpose of buying goods or replenishing their stocks, to "CALL" and look at our goods and prices, as they will surely meet with inducements that have not been heretofore offered west of New York City.
M. C. CHURCHILL.

Milwaukee Iron Store.

HARDWARE, IRON, NAILS &c.
NAZRO & KING are now receiving their 1st Spring stock of heavy and shelf hardware, to which they will constantly be making additions. We are now able to offer a complete assortment of Goods in our line, to which we would call the attention of all who wish to purchase for cash. Our stock having been laid in before the advancement, we feel confident that we can make such prices as will insure a ready sale. Having made arrangements with Eastern Hardware Manufacturers from whom we obtain our supplies, we can make it an object for country merchants to buy of us, and thus save them the disadvantage of buying an over stock. We will endeavor to keep on hand a full stock of Tools and Farming Implements, and will furnish at short notice, any amount of building material that may be wanted. Having adapted the system of serving all at one price, those who may favor us with orders, can rely on our doing as well by them as if they were here themselves.
Milwaukee, May 14, 1845. w

WHIG NOMINATION.

FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS.

JAMES COLLINS

OF IOWA COUNTY.

The editor of the Southport Telegraph has recently given evidence of an ardent desire to break a lance with us. We before last he devoted, (perhaps a half) column on some remarks of ours, respecting the somewhat peculiar position the Locofoco candidate stood in toward his party. We do not now recollect the whole drift of the Telegraph's labored effort, but believe it was to establish that modern patent democracy was not only "progressive," but versatile and varied, accommodating itself to the times and certain occasions. That "the great party," or at least many of its prominent members, had been alternately in favor of and opposed to banking institutions, and that Mr. MARTIN, for once having been the President and chief manager of a rotten, swindling moneyed institution was none the less deserving the confidence and support of "the party." In other words, that black was white and white black, and that the principles of democracy, so "ring-strained, speckled and gray," could with consistency befit the party on all and every occasion. As a more apt illustration of the Telegraph's democracy, it might be proper to repeat the story of the jack-knife, the owner of which gave its history as follows:—"This old jack-knife," said he, "was originally purchased by my great, great grandfather. That honored sire wore out the blade, and had another, a new one, substituted. It passed from him to his son, who, from constant use, wore out the handle, and he, in turn, supplied the deficiency to the knife with a new one. Changing in proprietorship with years, it became, in the progress of descending generations, the hereditary property of father and son, until it had passed through the hands of at least a dozen men, each one of whom had worn out and supplied it with either a handle or blade, but still it was the same old jack-knife." So with the Telegraph's democracy—it can change with the seasons, and, like the knife, "progress" with generations. In Missouri it can eschew all other circulating medium but "mint dollars," which, it was prophesied, were to "flow up the Mississippi"—in Michigan it can charter and put in operation a colony of wild cat institutions, thus, Locofoco-like, harnessing the country to the people, and "beat up their substance." And, probably more fully to express the Telegraph's own views on the beauties of democracy, (and to use its own to an apt illustration which he may use hereafter,) it can accommodate itself to circumstances and men with all becoming consistency, and still it is the same old democracy.

In reply to the inquiries in the last Telegraph, we remark, that in the nomination of Col. COLLINS Milwaukee has nothing to complain. He is known to be actuated by none of those selfish, local feelings that triumphed in the nomination of Mr. MARTIN and defeat of a distinguished democrat of this city. Col. COLLINS was not nominated solely on the ground that he resided out of Milwaukee. The gentleman who was the first choice of the Milwaukee Whig delegation withdrew his name from the canvass of the Convention—he was not, like the favorite of the Locofoco delegation from this city, defeated. Farther, had the gentleman, who was the choice of the Whigs of this county, suffered himself to remain before the convention, he would undoubtedly have been nominated at the succeeding canvass.

We owe our Whig neighbors one for their sympathy in the case of our democratic friend who failed to receive the nomination of the Territorial Convention for the Delegation, and are happy to have it in our power to reciprocate their wonderful and unselfish kindness upon that occasion. O, how their tears flowed for poor, cheated, down-trodden Milwaukee, and how loud their praises of the talent, integrity, and political virtues of our democratic favorite, D. A. J. UPLAND. Now lend us your own, neighbors, that we may repay those tears, as your own is really a pitiful one. And we are also disposed to say as many good-natured friends of Mr. Arnold as some of you did of Mr. Upland. He is really a gentlemanly individual, and abundantly qualified to present the Whig party, and we feel nothing but the bullying of the west, and the lack of nerve in his friends from the east, prevented his receiving the nomination.

Are you there, Doctor? Truly, it is a pity how your tears fall for "poor, down-trodden Milwaukee." And the "sad and silent sorrow" you manifest for Mr. ARNOLD is equally affecting, dear friend!—And then how very magnanimous in you, Doctor, to discover that he is "a gentlemanly individual, and abundantly qualified to represent the Whig party!" And so generous to acknowledge voluntarily what every one admits to be a fact beyond dispute. Respecting your "Union," Doctor, we would not be so cruel as to deprive you of that. It will be your only solace in a subsistence after the next election; therefore keep it for a rainy day. It is reported to be an excellent vegetable for Martins in a state of reticence from a public life. Send it to Green Bay, Dr.

Appointments by the President.

PASCHAL BEQUETTE, Receiver of Public Money for the district of Iowa subject to audit at Mineral Point, Wisconsin, vice Robert W. Lansing, removed.

WILLIAM P. LYONS, as Attorney of the United States for the Territory of Wisconsin, from the 22d instant, in the place of Thomas W. Sutherland, whose commission will on that day expire.

We have no feeling in common with Locofocism, and we take no interest in the deception of the political gullibility; but we will add that we are not in the least grieved by the reform made in the Mineral Point Land Office. Respecting the appointment of Mr. LYONS, we pronounce it a good one, and the incumbent a gentleman in the full sense of the term, and (without wishing to adopt the somewhat ambiguous language of the Courier, that he is a "lawyer of respectable standing") we pronounce him as possessing abilities to ably discharge the duties of his station.

SHOCKING.—A New York paper states that on Wednesday, the rioters in Suffolk county, L. I., saved off the props or uprights of a bridge fifteen feet high, and left them. The engineers got upon the bridge, but noticed the danger in time to save the train. It delayed the train some six or seven hours. This is a horrible state of things.

About a week ago, says the Providence Journal, Mr. Knight Armstrong, of Burrillville, on going into his barn found a jug of rum as he supposed, of which he drank a small quantity; soon after, he was taken sick, and died in the course of the day. After his death, the liquor was found to contain poison. Suspicion immediately rested on Mr. Daniel Cooper, his near neighbor and brother-in-law. An investigation was about being made into the affair, when, on the 9th inst., Mr. Cooper went into his barn and hung himself. He left a paper behind protesting his innocence of the crime charged against him, and made every arrangement for his funeral; requesting that if some of his near relatives should come to it, they might be sent away.

The Sandwich Islands, says the Newark Advertiser, have very naturally become one of the chief points of interest to the American people; who look for the development of moral life there with a concern corresponding to their instrumental aid in awakening it. An arrival at Fall River brings intelligence from them to the 1st of February, when a general reform in the civil affairs of the government was contemplated at Honolulu. A more efficient code of laws, a better arrangement of their judicial and commercial systems, a land system based upon that of the United States, and a recognition of the departments of government, were, we are informed by letters, among the reforms spoken of by the leading persons in the island.

We are happy to perceive, by a notice in our columns, that our citizens are to enjoy the rare treat of a Lecture, this evening, from the distinguished Irish orator, Rev. HENRY GALZ, formerly settled as a clergyman in Liverpool, England, and who, during the last few years, has given different courses of literary lectures to crowded houses in many of the larger cities of this country.

The lecture on Protestantism this evening, is, as we are informed, not of a sectarian or controversial character, but purely historical and literary; designed to illustrate the different aspects of this religious movement, and to present living portraits of the most eminent men who are identified with its origin and progress. It is said to be one of the most powerful and brilliant of the productions of a rich and cultured mind, and has received the highest commendations from persons of all parties who have heard it.

It is generally known that the remains of Sam Patch lie buried in the quiet cemetery near the mouth of the Genesee river. His grave is undistinguishable from the mass of the most humble of those who rest in this receptacle of the dead, but it is pointed out, with a melancholy pleasure, by those in the neighborhood who reverence the memory of the daring unfortunate.

Poor Samuel Patch—a man once world renowned, Much loved the water, and by it was drowned. He sought for fame, and as he reached to pluck it, He lost his balance, and then kicked the buckit.

[Rockeater Democrat.]

Alas, poor Sam! "We knew him well," and witnessed with our own eyes his last painful descent into the yawning abyss. We saw him, in his white dress, ascend the scaffold at a giddy height—wave his extended arms in token of adieu to the assembled multitude—spring from the scaffold into mid air—descend like an arrow into the basin below—saw him sink, and the waters close over him forever! Ten thousand spectators witnessed the scene. The multitude waited in breathless anxiety for him to rise, but after ten minutes suspense he did not appear, the vast assemblage broke off in sad procession, with humiliated hearts, passed back to the city, and left Sam Patch in the cold embrace of a voluntary watery grave, and the thunders of the cataract hymning eternally his funeral anthem.

Miss Blanchard, who some days since, in the face of day, and in the presence of hundreds of the citizens of New Orleans, shot the scoundrel who robbed her of her fair fame, died on the 26th ult., either from the effects of poison or the ravages of an insane mind.

The Magnetic Telegraph between New York and Philadelphia is to be completed by the 1st of October.

Gen. Brady.—At the dinner given by the Brady Guards to Williams' Light Infantry on Thursday, among other toasts was the following by Geo. C. Bates, Esq.:—"GEM. IRON BRADY: May we all, like him, ever have our knapsacks ready, either to do battle with the enemies of our country, or the King of Terrors himself!"

The felicity of the compliment can hardly be appreciated without understanding the allusion. The gallant veteran is now absent, and we may venture to give it. Gen. Brady, though far advanced in years, has seldom seen a sick day, thanks to a hardy frame and a life of temperance though of exposure and hardship. But a year or two since, he became seriously and dangerously ill and his friends believed that his last hour was at hand. The family clergyman was sent for to break the tidings to the unconscious dying man. The duty was discharged kindly and tenderly.—Instantly the old soldier raised himself in his bed and exclaimed—"Well, sir, let the drum beat 'my knapsack is slung!'"

Gen. Brady is no orator or educated scholar, but a plain blunt soldier, bred in the then wilds of Pennsylvania, and rising by his merit from the ranks to his present station. Yet what orator or scholar or hero has ever surpassed the simple grandeur and pathos of that sentiment?

[Detroit Daily Adv.]

The project of Railroading Broadway, by means of a tunnel—revived on Monday night in the Board of Aldermen—is attracting a great deal of attention. Something must soon be done to relieve the immense pressure of travel in this great thoroughfare. [N. Y. Tribune.]

The "burnt district" covers over a space of at least twenty acres, and the number of buildings destroyed is now estimated at three hundred and forty-five. This number, we now believe to be a pretty fair calculation. It is made up from the figures of intelligent gentlemen, who are well acquainted with the whole locality.

[N. Y. Herald.]

Every tear shed by a child for judicious correction, waters the amaranth of virtue; whilst every smile of triumphant impunity hastens the night shade of vice.

ARRIVAL OF THE BRITANNIA.

The steamer Britannia arrived at Boston at 6 o'clock on Thursday morning. We are indebted to Thompson's Express for Charles Wilmer's American News Letter of July 4.

There is no intelligence of importance. "So great is the paucity of interest," says the News Letter, "that it is difficult to decide what to write about."

The Harvest promised to be good all over England.

Trade was brisk in London.

The Steamer Great Britain had made an excursion with 500 passengers.

The American ship Virginia was burnt to the waters edge at Calcutta.

FRANCE.—The total revenue of France for 1846 is estimated at 1,302,622 134 francs, being 5,785,351 francs more than the presumed expenditure.—From this amount, however, the large extra credits granted, or to be granted, will have to be deducted.

According to a Galway paper, Mr. O'Connell has named the 17th of August for accepting the dinner which the repealers of that town say they are anxious to give him.

PORTUGAL.—A letter dated Lisbon, June 21, says that the report that the negotiations for a mutual reduction of import duties by the British and Portuguese governments, were about to be resumed, with every probability of a successful and highly satisfactory issue, was untrue.

A great quantity of machinery has lately been imported from England for the Portuguese cotton factories, which from all accounts, appear to have been much improved by the skill of English workmen.

Two Portuguese vessels, laden with tea, arrived some days ago from China.

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.—The weekly meeting of the Repeal Association took place on Monday, the 23d ult., in the Conciliation hall, Dublin, Alderman Keshan, Lord Mayor elect, in the chair.—Mr. M. O'Connell read an address from the association to the Repealers of the north of Ireland, dissuading them from any interference with the processions which the Orangemen intend to hold on the 1st and 12th of July.

A Washington correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial "wipes it" into Squire Ritchie after the following manner: The singular and total unfitness of Mr. Ritchie for the post of government editor, is universally seen, and by three members of the Cabinet, painfully felt. There is a deficiency of dignity and discernment altogether discreditable in the administration.

He is perpetually fiddling about inconsiderable matters—exaggerating trifles, correcting unimportant misstatements of the opposition press, and exercising a sort of supervisory, fatherly care over the government, which provokes the derision of every body. The indiscriminate praise with which he bespeakers every member and act of the administration, is really nauseous. Then his long winded columns, of attenuate rhapsody and rignarole, much of it without purpose or object, unless it be to furnish a given quantity of editorial—one can hardly imagine anything more preposterous. Why the Madisonian itself, the very pink and flower of absurdity, was scarcely more ridiculous. The Union blunders about every thing in its facts and its speculations—in its law and in its ethics. If Mr. Polk can stand such an organ, he will deserve what he is aiming at—a re-election.

A CURIOSITY.—There is a clock on one of the tables of Washington Hall, Cincinnati, bearing the following inscription:—"This clock was a wedding present by Oliver Cromwell, to his daughter on the day of her marriage to Sir James Claypole."

It is the property of D. C. Wallace, Esq., who came in possession of it some time since in England.

An Unpleasant "Companion of the Bath."—A Savannah paper states that Mr. I. H. Crawford, of Savannah, was attacked by an alligator a few days since while drawing a seine. The alligator seized him unceremoniously by the thigh, and lacerated the flesh severely, but Mr. Crawford succeeded in prevailing on the monster to relax his hold by resorting to the expedient of gouging, a mode of defence which was undoubtedly justifiable under the circumstance.

PAYNO LIKE A SINNER.—Several years ago, in North Carolina where it is not customary to charge the ministers anything for lodging and refreshments, a preacher presuming stopped at a tavern one evening, made himself comfortable during the night; and in the morning entered the stage without offering to pay for his accommodations. The landlord soon came running up to the stage, and said, "there was some one in there who had not settled his bill!"—the passengers all said they had, but the preacher, who said he had understood he never charged ministers anything, "What you a minister of the gospel, a man of God," cried the inn-keeper, "you came to my house you sat down at the table without asking a blessing, I lit you up to your room and you went to bed without praying to your Maker, (for I said there until you had undressed,) you rose and washed without prayers, ate your breakfast without saying grace, and as you came to my house like a sinner and ate and drank like a sinner, you have got to pay like a sinner."

NEW THING—SODA WATER PUT UP IN BOTTLES.—This article possesses all the properties of that drawn from the Fountain. Those who prefer different styles, can be accommodated. The convenient form that this is put up in, will admit of being transported to almost any distance, and its flavor unimpaired. By this arrangement, Hotels can serve up Soda Water to their guests, not inferior in quality to that drunk at the Fountains. Families who are fond of this pleasant, as well as healthy beverage, can have BOTTLED SODA WATER at their residences.
It is offered at the low price of 75 cents per dozen bottles. Prepared and sold by JULIUS WM. M. CUNNINGHAM.
CAUTION.—Purchasers when buying Dr.
Cott's medicines be careful that you get the genuine.
A large supply of the "simon pure" kind, received this day per steamer N Orleans, from the Laboratory of Dr. Wm. B. Moffat, and for sale
wholesale or retail by WM CUNNINGHAM,

DEAFNESS CAN BE CURED.
READ what Scarpa's Acoustic Oil has done for the deafest of men ever yet performed by any medicine. I never failed!
West Troy, June 3, 1844.
This is to certify that I, Willard Jenks, proprietor of the West Troy Hotel, having been afflicted with deafness in one ear for the last twenty years, and in the other for the last year, so that it was impossible for me to hear the loudest voice, and after trying various remedies without improving my hearing in the least, I was induced to try Scarpa's Acoustic Oil for the cure of Deafness, and it is with great gratification that I am enabled to state that it has perfectly restored my hearing, and I will be happy to see any person who wishes for information in relation to my case, at my place in West Troy.
WILLARD JENKS.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.
THIS troublesome disease is cured by the use of Hall's Uterine Abductor Supporter; from the many certificates in its favor we select the following of Doctor Ashwell—After its successful trial in Guy's hospital, the following certificate was handed to Dr. Hall's London Agent, for public use:—
"I have visited Dr. Hall's instrument for the cure of Prolapsus and Protrusion of the Uteri. I am glad to express a highly favorable opinion of its utility. In a severe case of entire Protridenia, lately under treatment at Guy's Hospital, it was applied with marked success. Its great superiority over the pessary consists in its affording efficient support to the weak nee-dominal Integuments, and in its external application, instead of its introduction into the vagina. I quite think it will accomplish a permanent cure better and more quickly than the pessary."
SAMUEL ASHWELL, M.D.
Obstetric Physician, and Lecturer on Guy's, London.
Sir Asstly Cooper, after the apparatus had been several months under his inspection, gave the following opinion for publication:—
"This apparatus is beautiful for its simplicity; it is an acquisition to practice. The principle of its operation is quite original and perfect. I shall advise its use, and make use of it in my own practice, in preference to anything
I have seen."
The above valuable instrument can be found the agent for the sale of the same in Wiscon-

COME ONE COME ALL!
DAYAN'S
I AM now receiving a large stock of new,
fashionable, long and staple Goods, suited to the tastes and wants of the public. I wish my customers all the public generally to distinctly understand, that my stock must be sold—secondly, it will be sold at prices that will challenge a comparison with any west of Buffalo—thirdly, that in extent, beauty, variety and cheapness it is second to none;
fourthly, that, as my terms are exclusively cash,
my customers are not required to pay the percentage necessary to guard against bad debts;
and lastly, that I have but ONE PRICE
from which there is no deviation.
In my stock of Dry Goods is a choice selection of
DRESS GOODS
Balzoreins, Lanes, De Laines (new style)
Gingham, Etilanes, Ad-lalanes, Bombazines, Silks, Prints, &c.
SHAWLS AND SCARFS.
Silks, Bazarine, De Laine,
Palm Leaf, Chills, & Beuzoscaris & hdkfs.
FANCY HIDEPSHRAVATS & PILNITS
of every variety.
HOSIERY,
Ladies', Gents', Boys' and Misses, of all sorts.
PARASOLS AND SHADES.
Bonnet materials, trimming, Flowers,
Wreaths, Gloves, Mitts—in fine, a complete and perfect assortment of all the
"LITTLE FIXENS," that any devoted fashion can call for—together with a large stock of fine
FRENCH AND ENGLISH CLOTHS,
Summer Cassimeres, Tweeds,
Kentucky Jeans, Summer Stuffs, Satinets,
Moleskins, Blue Jeans, T. H. Linens,
Bleached Shirts and Shetlands,
Table Linen, Daper, Batts, Yarn &c.
In the line of GROCERIES
I am confident in the belief and satisfied that my prices will verify it, that I can make better offers than any other town, for the reason that my stock was bought before the great rise in the market; an advantage of which my customers will reap the benefit. The stock is unusually large, and comprises every thing that can be desired. In conclusion, all I ask is an examination of the stock, and a comparison of quality and prices.

WEST HAD FOREVER!
R. HOUGHTON takes this method to inform the customers of the late firm of R. H. & Co., and the public generally, that the business in future will be conducted by him at the old stand, where he will receive, in the course of the present week, a general assortment of Fancy and Staple
DRY GOODS,
Groceries, Crockery and Glassware, Hardware, Nails, Oils, Paints, &c.—All of which will be offered for sale at a small advance from cost, for cash or most kinds of country produce.
Believing the cash or ready pay system to be the cheapest and most profitable to both the buyer as well as the seller, that principle will be adopted and strictly adhered to.
He does not wish to "puff" and boast of his long experience and extensive acquaintance in New York—great facilities and extraordinary abilities in purchasing goods, &c. or even say he will sell cheaper than any body else—but he does wish to say, his motto being "live and let live," and on the principle that a "noble stipen-dice is better than a slow shilling," that he will sell "as cheap as the goods," the truth of which he pledges himself to demonstrate to the entire satisfaction of every one who may favor him with a call.

WHEREAS Mary my wife has left my home and board without any just cause or provocation, and refused to live with me, I hereby forbid all persons harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting after this date.

in three parts—Primary, Intermediate and final; the whole so arranged as to effect great economy of time, labor and expense. By the use of these books, teachers will be enabled to instruct double the number of pupils, with the same labor, and at less than half the cost for books, than by the use of any other system.
